

How to get to SAAM by car

Our new entrance is at 16 Bedford Street, Port Adelaide.
This is near the corner of Bedford Street and Perkins Drive.

Using Google or Bing Search Engines

Search for South Australian Aviation Museum, or 16 Bedford Street, Port Adelaide (both work).

Car GPS Maps

If you enter Bedford Street, Port Adelaide (without a street number) and drive to where it meets Perkins Drive, you will be very close and see the entrance.

16 Bedford Street is a new street number, and most GPS systems don't have it on their maps yet. It might take you to the old Lipson Street entrance or perhaps 116 Bedford Street, Gillman.

Follow the Signs

The large brown wayfinding signs have not been updated yet. Look for the small white or brown temporary (Coreflute) signs. The big signs are to be fixed in January 2024.
